HI

“ She was a cherished member of our Holiday Inn team, and her presence meant more to us than words can express. She worked hard, was always eager to help, and took great pride in her work—often with her notes in hand and her favorite cute pens close by. She had such a thoughtful heart and loved doing little things to make others smile, like gifting a bag decorated with pandas to our head housekeeper simply because she knew how much she loved them. Her kindness, her smile, and her familiar voice brought warmth to our days. As a team, we will deeply miss seeing her, working alongside her, and sharing each day with her. She will always hold a special place in our hearts.
