“ *Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy;
O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

“ My Beautiful Momma was the most special soul anyone could ever meet. She always had the brightest smile on her face. I am so very thankful to have been blessed to be her daughter. I will cherish all the wonderful memories I get to keep in my heart, and pray that I can be even half the wonderful mother, wife, and friend she was. I will forever miss her voice... Hi my beautiful gorgeous Momma! Hi My beautiful baby girl. 🥹 I love you forever Beautiful Momma

“ I have known Anna and family for over 26 years. I'll never forget when I invited Anna to church and she literally ran up to the altar to accept the LORD as her SAVIOR. We both cried and cried. She was so happy and I know she loved the LORD. I am so glad that the LORD put her into my life. She truly made my life better. I know that now she is singing and dancing for her LORD.

“ I have known Anna for several years she used to go to my church she will be truly missed by everyone she always had a smile on her face no matter what she was going through each day. I clean their house so many times and I could always hear her talking to one of her kids or grandkids on the phone as a memory said I'm going to remember and that big smile that she always had on her face. Rest in peace sweet sister.

“ To all the family of Anna

I remember Anna as always smiling and having an infectious giggle. She was a hilarious person. The times I spoke to her whether on the phone or in person she would inherently cause one to break out in smiles or laugh along with her. Her sense of humor was always there no matter the circumstances she faced. She had a loving care about her that only came from our Lord. As I spoke to her yesterday in her critical state, her question was, “How are you doing?” Wow such a thought even though she herself was in dire straights. I was amazed at her strength of character. She is with our Lord now and within our memories. She was loved and most of all a blessed woman of God.
