“ Junior, or J R as many of his friends knew him, was not just our brother in law, but a great friend and bandmate. He loved his family unconditionally and his family extended beyond the bounds of blood. If you had Junior Gaspard as a friend, you had a true friend you could always count on for his help, support, and generosity. We will always cherish our memories of his humor and his talent, but most of all his love and support.
Rest In Peace, Junior, we love you and will carry you in our hearts forever.

“ Junior helped get my music career started back in 2017 and I'm still playing music to this day almost every weekend! He played drums and loved singing swamp pop and classic country. Billy Redd was our bass player and we had a great time playing together. He was married to my grandpa Big E's wife so he was my uncle by marriage. When I started playing music for a living, Junior would work the night shift as a security guard, and on my way home from Houston back to Lufkin every Friday/Saturday night, we would talk almost the whole way home. He'd help keep me awake and we'd talk about music and life the whole time. I'll definitely miss him. He left his drum kit to my son Luke Ener. Hope to see you again one day! - Gabriel H. Ener
