“ *My Husband and I got to know Caroline at Arlen's Grocery Store in Galveston. We knew Caroline for several years, and loved sharing stories about our children and how proud we were of them. I always loved giving Caroline a hug, and receiving her hug back. May her memory be a blessing to us all.

“ To the Family of Caroline no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. Just remember that those we hold closest to our hearts never truly leaves us. Caroline will live on in the kindness she shared and the love she brought into our of all lives.
