Carolyn Sue Bradley, 81 years young, of Texas City, passed away Thursday, August 14th, 2025 at HCA Houston Healthcare Mainland after a life lived full of love. Carolyn was born July 19th, 1944 in Rolla, Missouri.

Carolyn is survived by her loving daughter Vicki Camfield and son-in-law James Camfield. Two devoted granddaughters; Jessica Williamson, Jodie German with her husband Allen German. Her five spoiled great-grandchildren; Lauren Boggs, Breanna Roberts, Logan Placker, Karissa Roberts, and Jazlin Roberts. Her two precious great-great-grandchildren; Sophia Bethea and Evelyn Alvarado.

Carolyn enjoyed collecting antique porcelain dolls. She loved to shop for fine jewelry on HSN and QVC. Her favorite activity was attending family gatherings and spending time with her loved ones. Some of her grandchildren's favorite memories of Carolyn are sharing her favorite meals with her such as barbecue baked potatoes, steak, and large messy hamburger and of course a Pepsi by her side at all times. These meals were often followed up with desserts like cakes, cookies, and ice cream. Whatever the meal or the dessert, they were always accompanied with smiles, laughter, and lots of love. Carolyn, you will forever be our hero, always the sunlight on our face. You are an angel flying higher than the eagles. You will forever and always be the the wind beneath our wings.

“ My grandma was the most caring loving grandma I remember growing up going to Missouri on the plane with my older sister and she would always order her meat and her ice cream off of a truck it was so fresh she always had her house so clean... She used to send me animal books cuz I loved animals when I was younger she had a subscription and they would come to me every month...:(she was a good grandmother a good mother a good great grandmother I just still can't believe she's gone!
