

Mr. Casey Hampton

October 9, 1951 - April 5, 2020

"Miss Me - But Let Me Go"

"For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It is a part of the Masters plan a step on the road to our eternal home."

Casey was born October 9, 1951, to the late Curly and Onita Hampton in Le Moyne, Louisiana. Casey was educated in Louisiana until he moved to Galveston, Texas and finished at Central High School, Class of 1968.

Casey, fondly known as "SNAKE", was a devoted truck driver for 42 years. He was loving and compassionate, enjoyed life, a hard worker, loved people, and he never met a stranger.

He is preceded in death by his parents, and siblings, Abe, Otis, Curly Jr, Moral and Walter Hampton. Left to cherish memories are his wife, Beverly Semien Hampton; step-daughter, LaChat Bluit; step-grandson, Kameran Jackson; step-granddaughter, Kendall Rodriguez; his sisters, Estelle Jackson and Ollie Malveaux; brother, Amos Hampton; his devoted sister-in-law, Brenda Cooper and host of nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.

“ I want to offer my condolences to the family of Casey. I worked with him for 17 years at the Enterprise Transportation Terminal in Texas City. I thought a lot of him and he would always come visit me in the parts room when he was at the terminal. He was the hardest working truck driver that I ever met. Robbie Robinson
