“ I am Tommie McNeil. I moved to Houston from Galveston September 3rd. I 1st met Charles in the early 1oops, then again about 3 years ago. He stayed at my house briefly before getting his own. I am legally blind. He kept me alive by always bringing me great food

He called me before he passed crying. He said the Doctors said he did not have long to live. Still he was Very happy the last year of his life. He was an incredible coillilok and Friend.

Charles was an outstanding human being! Also, he was one the best cooks in Galveston County. He prepared many meals for me, my wife, and my fraternity. It was a pleasure knowing him. He was always pleasant and upbeat.

He will be missed. RIP Charles. Get your well deserved rest. Condolences to the entire family. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Charles was a wonderful person. He was a friend to me after he we met when he was cooking all kinds of delicious foods for me. Any occasion, any menu, he was never too busy to cook. I will miss him and and I am sending condolences to his family and asking God to lift you up at this difficult time.
