

Mrs. Cora Richardson

May 11, 1932 - September 30, 2018

Cora Dean Caldwell-Richardson, daughter of Rigg and Louella Caldwell was born in Stoneham, Texas on May 11, 1932. She was the eighth of nine children.

Cora confessed to Christ at an early age at Stonehamville United Methodist Church. After moving to La Marque, she united with McKinney Memorial United Methodist Church where she was active in the Mass and Gospel Choirs, United Methodist Women and Lena Perryman Senior Program until her failing health prevented her from doing so. She was also affectionately known for her service in the church kitchen.

On Sunday, September 30, 2018, Cora departed this life. She was preceded in death by her husband, Hairl Richardson Sr., her parents, Rigg and Louella Caldwell, sisters, Tessie Wilburn, Ruby Whitfield, Melba Davis and Bertie Lee Williams; brothers, Willie Lee Caldwell, John Ira Caldwell, Elliott Caldwell, Uvon Caldwell and Isiah Ford.

Cora graduated from George Washington High School in Navasota, Texas. She began her medical career as a Nurse Aide with John Sealy Hospital. After a brief tenure there, she worked as a Heart Technician and Respiratory Therapist at Mainland Center Hospital until her retirement.
