“ I knew Cindi since junior high school. She was one of the best friends I have ever had.

Some high school memories:

We were in the Future Farmers of America. We would get up before sunrise to walk our steers at the AG barn. Cindi drove us in her papa's standard truck and she was a good driver.

Going country western dancing. Passing notes in class or hallways. Lunch times when Cindi joked and had all of us at the table laughing so hard. Cindi was friends with everyone.

Through the years, even though we had not talked or seen each other for long periods of time our friendship always continued as if we had talked the day before.

I would call Cindi and she would say "I've been thinking of you the past few days I knew you would call."

There were times when we cried on each other's shoulder.

Cindi's face would light up when she talked about her children and granddaughter. She was so proud of them! She had a never ending love and devotion to them.

May perpetual light shine upon you Cindi.

Love,
