“ I remember the day that we first met you and your brothers. We drove an hour and a half to your foster parents house. There you were standing with your 2 brothers each with a red rose in your hands. "Are you going to be our mother?" Your brothers asked. Your dad picked you up and held you. You rubbed his beard and mustache, looked down and asked him "You got boots?" That was the first thing you said to your dad. "You got boots". I remember going and buying you a new pair of boots so that you could be like your dad. When we gave them to you, you said "I got boots" You were so happy. Your smile could light a million rooms. I love you son.

“ My Son, I will miss you very much. You had a short troubled life, and I am sorry that we could not ease your pain. We tried to help you, but I guess we did not have what you needed. I hope you are at peace now. I hope that from where you are, you can see now how much your family did love you. We will miss your smile, and your hugs.

Damian, I will always love you and I will hold you in my heart since I can't hold you in my arms.

Rest in peace now my son. I love you.
