“ Memories of Debora go back to our childhood going to Lake Road Elementary, playing board games at birthday parties, being excited when Ollie came over, Mamie Devereaux's Twilight Teen Club, Bell Zion Baptist Church, La Marque Intermediate and La Marque High School Class of 1976. Those days of great experiences, great friendship, and great fun will be with me forever. I extend my prayers and condolences to Mrs. Green, Ollie, the children, grandchildren, family and friends. Hold on to the good times and they will allow you to smile instead of cry. Much love to all of you!

Today is your birthday, I believe you would have made 67. I think about you often. I remember the last time I saw you we had met up to see Jabari play and you were on a walker... it broke my heart. You were the toughest one of the Green girls. (You, Kam and myself). To see you not at 100% bothered me. I prayer for complete healing and God did just that but on the other side. I know you are with family and especially Nunce... you loved her with all of your being. I'm sure you'll have a piece of sausage with plenty of bread today!😭😭 I love you Deb and miss you with all my heart...❤️❤️❤️

“ I remember Deb from when we were kids and because of lifes changes I hadn't seen nor heard from Deb until our daughters Ebony and Khrystian met in 8th grade. The memory that sticks out the most for me is when the mall of the Mainland was the place to hang out for the kids. Khrystian asked me if she could go with her new friend from school, I told her not if I didn't meet her new friends parents and when Bim and Deb got to our house to pick her up. I saw who Ebony's family was I knew my baby was in good hands with good people. I have loved Ebony from the moment I met her. My prayers go out to Bim, Tyshera, Ebony, all the grandchildren and the entire family. Gone too soon, rest well Deborah. Love always, Kathy Cunningham and family.🙏❤️”

“ To everything there is a season..... This is so unreal that I'm writing this on your page. My big sis is no longer going to call and say, "Hey Epps". It is hard to let go but knowing you are suffering makes it easier to cope. Please know I have my moments, but God. To my two nieces I pray that you will continue on in life knowing she is right there with you. To my nephews, Bari, Daeshan, Dev, and Zan she loved you more than you could ever know. She totally wanted the best for you. Please fix your life in a way that would make her proud. Bari she took great pride in watching you in your element while playing basketball. She would always let me know when you were playing so I could watch you on television. To Bem, only God knows the hurt you feel at this time by losing your ONLY child. Thank you Bem for being a great mom to Deb. You were there every step of the way making sure she had what she needed. Ebony Hendon, words cannot express the huge thank you I have for you for ALWAYS doing what needed to be done when it came to your mom. You were/are the rock. May God bless and keep each and every one of you. I love you, Auntie Ollie.
