

Mrs. Diamantina Gorton

March 21, 1942 - March 26, 2021

Diamantina Gorton passed away on March 26, 2021, at Kindred Hospital in Webster, with her husband and daughter at her side.

Diane was born March 21, 1942, in Galveston, Texas to Lupe and Maria Silva and was a proud BOI and attended Galveston Public Schools. Diane worked for many years as a very talented seamstress, as well as at Gerlands in Galveston. She was especially gifted at arts and crafts, and always making something cool and unique, as well as doing crocheting and needlepoint. Above all, she was the #1 fan of the Dallas Cowboys since their beginning in 1959, and will surely be watching her team through the stadium roof with her favorite coach, Tom Landry. Diane enjoyed the simple things in life such as working in her garden, fishing, and most of all being with her family and friends. Diane was a very giving person and always ready to help those in need.

Diane was predeceased by her parents and former husband, Robert ODonohoe, Sr.

Left to cherish her memory are husband, James Gorton of Texas City; daughter, Beverly ODonohoe and boyfriend Anthony Meaux of San Leon; son, Robert ODonohoe of Texas City; brother in law: Dr. Joe Gorton of Waterloo, Iowa; sister in law, Linda Gorton Roberts of Galveston; and brother in law,

Kirby Gorton and wife, Gail of Jersey Village; and many nieces and nephews.
