“ Sincerest condolences to the Henry family. The Griffin and Henry families were the two largest families at Galilee United Methodist Church. Both families were there every Sunday and was involved in everything! We go back about 60 years. This is a day of celebration because I know that from a young child, Diane knew the Lord, and now, her soul will rest with Him eternally. Thankfully, God allowed her to see her nephew make history by being elected the first Black mayor of Texas City!! God is good, indeed! The family will be in my prayers.
