

Mr. Don Bertrand Elliott

January 9, 1942 - January 27, 2024

Don Bertrand Elliott, 82, of Galveston, passed away Saturday, January 27, 2024, peacefully at his home. He was a beloved husband and cherished father and will be missed by many. Don was born January 9, 1942, in Trinidad and Tobago.

He retired from The University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston after 25 years in Psychiatry and was an Aviation Mechanic at Texas Air. Don was certified from Rice University as an Aviation Mechanic and HVAC. He was an outstanding handyman, enjoyed fishing and spending time with his family. He was an avid outdoorsman. Don was also an active member of Greater Barbour's Chapel Baptist Church where he enjoyed singing in the choir.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Theodora Elliott and O'Connell Richen; his brothers: Leon Elliott and Myron James; and sisters: Louise Elliott and Hannah Richen of Trinidad and Tobago.

Don leaves precious memories with his wife of 22 years, Deborah Elliott; siblings: Myles Elliott (Lorraine) of Atlanta, Neville Richen of Massachusetts, Edme Richen of Brooklyn, Carline Richen-Sinkler of New Jersey and Yvonne Richen of Houston; sons: Marvin Welch (Carmen) and Tyrone Elliott (Fanitra); daughters: Leiya and Ashley Elliott (Larry); stepdaughters: Erica and Brittany Avie; grandchildren: Marvin, Jordan, Christopher, Christian, Christina, Christany, Zari, Jules and Mia Welch; Tyra, Naomi, Aliyah and Alex Elliott; Kalum Yoakum; Alexis Tinsley; Logan Grace; Kaden and Kadir Muhammad; Robert Jr and Trinity Williams and great-grandson: Atreus Welch.

Special thanks to the staff of A Serene Healthcare/Hospice and McBride Funeral Home for their loving and exceptional care.

Mr. Elliott's Celebration of Life will be live streamed on our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/McBrideFHTX> beginning at 11 a.m.
