

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Jones

September 22, 1961 - August 15, 2020

Elizabeth Ann Jones was born September 22, 1961, to Eugene Bradley and Maggie Fletcher in Galveston, Texas. As a child, Elizabeth moved from Galveston, Texas to Luling, Texas, where she grew up to be a strong, resilient young lady. She graduated from Luling High School among a class generation that knew lives mattered. She returned to Galveston in her later years. In her first marriage, three beautiful children were birthed. She left this earth in union to Carl Jones, which added three more children to their loving family. She was a proud member of True Faith Missionary Baptist Church led by Pastor Earl Langham.

Elizabeth loved to dance and spend time with her family and friends. She was full of love, compassion and fire. She loved her family, her fashion and she knew how to comfort you and fight for you. She always stayed fly and had the heart of a diva. She would generously welcome you into her home with open arms whenever she could. You always felt the beauty and comfort of her love, spirit and passion for self-inspired interior design that could light up a room along with your heart. She could make a plain house a really beautiful home. She was one of the coolest aunts and was funny and full of personality so much that she would make you laugh and brighten up your day. She will truly be missed by all of her family, friends, and co-workers. She was a hard worker and wholeheartedly dedicated over 19 years of service to the Texas Department of Criminal Justice with the Carole Young Medical facility in Texas

City, TX. She was an amazing mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, cousin and friend. She touched so many people's lives because of her loving spirit, kindness, and fairness. She was an amazing strong woman with so much love that impacted many and will never be forgotten and deeply missed.

Elizabeth is preceded in death by her father: Eugene Bradley; her sister: Debbie Sue Langham; her son: Bobby Jones, Jr.; sister-in-law: Yvonne Fletcher; and brother-in-law: Benjamin Lockett.

She is survived by her husband, Carl Jones; their children: Dorkeia Jones-Britton (Jahary), Brandon Jones, Carl Little, Michael Little, and Cherika Smith; her mother: Maggie Fletcher; 2 sisters: Shirley Lockett and Sandra Hightower; five brothers: Michael Wayne Fletcher, Eugene Earl Fletcher, Ellis Ray Fletcher, Danny Fletcher and Raymond Nunn (Daphne). Elizabeth also leaves to cherish her memory, 12 grandchildren: Brandon Jr., Brenden, Brycen, Devon, Bra'aise, Carter, Heaven, KDen, An'Yanni, Jarrie, Bobby and Bralon; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; and a special mention to her mother-in-law, Olivia Stokes and in-laws.

“ Ms Jones was a very good Correctional officer and I worked with her as a nurse and loved her personality. She smiled all the time and was very kind to all. I was close to her but lost contact when I retired. May she rest in the Lord's presence and may the family know that they are in my prayers.
