“ A week before everything with my mother I kept feeling like I needed to see her, but thinking of it in a small way like I didn't know if I was going to go away again or she was going to go away again so I wanted to take the opportunity for us to see each other on free ground. So I went to see her with my brother Anthony and this was the first time in my adult life that I was able to hug my mom and just to see her in front of me in real life. But I was blessed to be able to take this picture with her we're both black as hell 🤔👉 and it was real dark where we where at and I don't give a damn I still feel blessed to be able to share that moment with her 😇
