

Ms. Eloisa Darby

January 10, 1939 - September 27, 2025

Eloisa Darby, born January 10, 1939, peacefully passed away on September 27, 2025. She was born to John and Carmen Mireles in Port Arthur, Texas. Eloisa grew up in Beaumont, where she attended French High School.

She was a devoted mother to seven children—John Mayo, Clyde Mayo, Mary Mayo, Victoria Mayo, Dee Darby Jason Darby, and Zelda Darby and she is survived by many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and sisters: Patricia Barbosa and Josephine Mireles.

Eloisa dedicated her life to her family and her career in healthcare. Known for her compassionate care and warm spirit, she touched the lives of every patient she served. Her coworkers affectionately called her "Mama Darby," a testament to the kindness and friendship she extended to those around her.

Eloisa's kindness, strength, and loving nature will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

“ I worked many years with Mama Darby at old Baptist 4A. She was such a blessing to us nurses. She was an excellent nurse aide. She always fed us like a mama would. We had so many good laughs with her. Love you Darby, RIP

“ I remember Ms Darby when she worked at Baptist Hospital with my sister, Pat who was a pediatric nurse. Ms Darby was always kind and very sweet. The last time I saw her was when she stopped at the Cancer Center where I worked. Hadn't seen her in many years, but she hadn't changed a bit. I know she will be missed.

Rest in peace Mama Darby. I remembered one of those happy days that we attended George Strait's concert with Asela. You were dancing with the music.
