“ My Aunt Sug was a sweet, gentle soul, and I have nothing but good memories of spending time with her and the family when we would visit Dowagiac. I remember her always smiling, and talking about God and how important it was to treat everybody right in her soft-spoken manner. She was one of those people who always made you smile when you saw them coming. It makes things a bit easier knowing that she is home with the Lord. Love to the family.
