

Mrs. Francine Love

September 1, 1948 - January 12, 2023

Strong, loving, caring, non-judgmental, a great listener, and most of all a fighter that is who Francine was to us. On January 12, 2023, God called home one of his best children to now be one of his greatest angels.

Francine Adams Love, known as “Feen,” to those around her was born September 1, 1948, in Galveston, TX to Sylvernia Campbell and Kirby Linscomb. By three she was adopted by her aunt Polita “Petey” Friar and Julius “Dickey Boy” Adams. They raised her in Cuero, TX where she graduated from Cuero High School in 1966.

She eventually moved back to her hometown where one of the greatest journeys of her life began. She did get married and even though they later divorced they maintained a lifelong friendship. She had three beautiful children who she would give the world to if she could.

In 2007 she was diagnosed with breast cancer and after putting up a strong fight she was in remission. 3 years later she found out the cancer had metastasized to her bones. She then put up the greatest battle of her life for her loved ones. Her battle with cancer lasted for 16 years, so she could be here for her loved ones until God called her home.

To know her is to know she is a very strong-willed person, to know her is to know she would do anything for those she loved, to know her is to know she is now on a new journey of becoming the best guardian angel her loved ones could ask for.

Francine will be met at the gates of heaven by her son Jason who will have his arms open and happy to be reunited with his mother. She will also, be met by her mother and father Polita and Julius, her brother Johnny and sister Eva. Her favorite nephew Curvis will be there with her niece Sylvernia. She will also be met by her honorary mother Elizabeth Cooper, and they will welcome her with open arms.

Francine may be gone but she will leave a legacy her on earth through her two beautiful daughters Polita and Sherketha. Her three granddaughters Pauletta, Brianna, and Jasmine. Her favorite grandson Jaylin and her great grandson De'Travion. Her two brothers Kirby Jr, Benny and sister Elva. She will also leave behind a host of family and friends.
