

Mr. George Edward Stretch III

December 11, 1952 - June 3, 2021

George Edward Stretch III was born on December 11, 1952 in Dallas, Texas and passed from this life at the age of 68 on June 3, 2021 in Houston, TX. He was preceded in death by his parents, George Edward Stretch Jr and Mary Lee Porter, his brother Tommie Stretch, and his grand-daughter Cammie. He is survived by his sister, Beverly Matthews, daughters Brandy and Jennifer Stretch, nieces, and nephews.

George enjoyed a full and extremely varied life, growing up in Dallas and East Texas then joining the U.S. Marine Corps. He went on to become a commercial diver and diver medical technician, working at locations around the world. After his diving career ended, he became an actor and stuntman and appeared in several movies and television shows. He worked as a professional photographer later in life, and most recently had become a beloved Santa at several malls in the Houston area.

George was known for sharing stories of his life experiences and always being ready with a good joke, guaranteed to bring a smile to your face. He was a huge history buff, especially loving military history, the American West, and Medieval Norse and European history. He participated in several re-enactment groups, exceling in the use of period weaponry.

Those wishing to honor George's memory may make a donation to the Disabled American Veterans in his name.
