

Mr. Glen Edward Winn

June 15, 1929 - November 9, 2023

Glen Edward Winn passed from this life on November 9, 2023. Born in Nebraska on June 15, 1929 to Glen H. and Alice Winn, Glen spent his youth moving about the country with his family, eventually settling in Hooks, Texas where he attended high school. It was in nearby Texarkana where he met Betty Jean French, whom he married on September 10, 1950. After attending Texarkana Junior College and North Texas State College, (now known as University of North Texas), Glen had a long career in labor relations and safety training, having worked at the Lone Star Ammunitions Plant in Texarkana, Lone Star Steel in Lone Star, Texas, Trailmobile trailer manufacturers and Norris Cylinder Company, both in Longview, Texas, and the Sabine Mining Company in Hallsville, TX.

Glen and Betty had four children between the years 1951 and 1958 and from them had nine grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. Glen was a loving man, always putting family first and was adored by everyone. His legacy is the love shared by so many in his family and his friends. He will be remembered for his good humor and quick wit as well as his kind heart.

Glen was preceded in death by his mother and father; brother, Robert; daughter, Glenda McClellan; and brother-in-law Charles French. He is survived by his wife of seventy three years, Betty Winn; daughter, Linda Burns of Baytown, Texas; son, Charles (Liz) Winn of Tyler, Texas; son, and Robert (Karen) Winn of Dallas, Texas; nine grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren: James (Rachelle) McClellan and their two children, Kohner and Addison; Amanda Strickland and her two children, Cameron and Collin; Rebecca (Jason) Maroney and their two children Addison and Ashlyn; Jessica (Cory) Meadows Beard and their two children, Daylen and Gavin; Joy (Michael) Perez and their children, Maggie, Oscar, and Olivia; Laci (Kareem) Nalley Willians and their daughter Sofia along with her son Austin Perez; Carmen (Jim) Bobinger and her two sons, Bryce Caset and Parker Huntley; Cassie (Sam) Patterson and their two children, Olliver and Blake; and Hailey Winn.

We are all saddened by the loss of this great man but rejoice in his legacy and his peaceful rest.
