“ I remember Sunday dinners when Henderson was in New York. My mother would have cooked dinner before church, with maybe gravy or cornbread left to do. Henderson would get his plate first, maybe something sweet that he liked. But for me because I was so young the thing that stood out the most was that he controlled the TV. No Sunday afternoon movies or whatever else that was on that I wanted to see, Football, Dallas Cowboys, was my only option. I learned to love the sport because of him, he would explain the game as long as I didn't ask to many questions. He was patient and always kind to me back then. My brother-in law. I pray for Gods soothing presence to help and comfort you. Much Love to You All, Julia A Belle
