HI

My dad and I back in October '24. Although we didn't have the best relationship, I will definitely always love him and inheriting my love of music from him. I'll see you next lifetime. I love ya!!

I am saddened to learn of Horace's passing, Horace taught me so much to be a much better jazz musician 25 years ago when I played for him. He was an encyclopedia of jazz songs that he knew perfectly and he was tough on us if we didn't work hard on his jobs and know the songs in all 12 keys. He had a great sense of humor and he was very kind to my kids when they came to see him perform. I have very fond memories of him.
