

Mrs. Jamie Haga

March 20, 1961 - January 6, 2024

Loving mother, Jamie Jo Haga, passed away in her sleep on January 6, 2024, at the age of 62. She was a charismatic woman that was easy to talk to and always could make us laugh. She had a faith and a love for God like no other. A truly genuine heart with nothing but love to give. Taken far too soon, we are all sad to know she is gone. She is survived by her children: Davy H. Wolfe, Douglas C. Haga, Christopher C. Haga and Emily A. Haga.

Goodbye mom, we love you and will miss you always.

My deepest condolences to the children of Jamie. I am in shock to learn of her transitioning tonight. I sent her a new years greeting and didn't get a response. I sent an inbox message a few days back and no response. Jamie was in my thoughts tonight. And I found out on Facebook she went to be with the Lord. I felt in my spirit something serious had happened. What I felt was terribly true. Our last conversation was on November 9th through messenger. I'm just listening for words. I didn't know Jamie very long, but we hit it off through social media rather well. I met her through a ministry on Facebook. So so very sorry to learn about this. May God strengthen her children and family, friends, and colabourers in the Lord. May your sorrow be brief and joy come in the morning. God bless you all. 🙏🙏

“ There are so many to share. Her laugh and smile were contiguous. She was a great sister and law. I enjoyed our many talks about life and just general BS. As life moved on and the years passed, we lost contact but still was on my thoughts.

RIP Ms. Jaime, you will be missed.

“Jamie and I became friends thru Facebook and she was my sister in the Lord. She had a great sense of humor, and a great love for her children and brothers and sisters in Christ. I was saddened to hear the news but happy she is now with our Lord and won't have to go thru the pain on this earth any longer. My condolences to all those who knew and loved her.

“Wow memories there really are so many, I would say the best memories would be the wonderful children you gave me Jamie, gone too soon, I don't understand God Jamie you will be missed my friend. You are not in pain anymore, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, I believe you are there with Jesus and grandma, pop, and my dad. See you on the other side.

“My condolences to the family for your loss. Jamie and I go way back to Sierra Vista when the boys were little guys. She was my sistah-friend. We prayed, cried and laughed together. Her laughter was infectious. We laughed over the silliest things. One word would send us screaming and laughing. She validated the call on my life always calling me by who God called me to be. Distance and time never stopped our genuine love for each other. I'll miss you beautiful sistah-friend. Rest in Peace Eternally. Aisha

“ There are several memories as a young adult I had with Jamie, one that really stands out for me is probably the best advice I ever got about cats(she sure loved her animals). I went to drop Skyler off to her one day, and her cat Ruban was meowing his hardest. I had to ask her, "What was wrong with him?" she said he wanted food. I was like "Jamie he has food she said. " well yeah he does , but he sees a hole in the middle, so he thinks there is nothing there." She said just watch me shake this bowl, and he stopped because he thought it was full again. This advice is the best advice about cats I ever got. I share this advice with many of my friends, and obviously use it for my own stubborn cats. I can still think of the laughs we had that day. Thank you, Jamie / Nana, for being a part of our lives. I'm so glad you are resting easy now and not in pain. ❤️
