“ Where do I start? From working many years together to forming what would be an unbreakable bond. You were my cousin but quickly became more like a brother and one of my best friends. I will miss your "Good morning big head have a good day, I love you" texts. Life won't be the same without you here, but I'm thankful you are now peacefully resting. Thank you for loving my sons and always ready to support them in whatever they had going on. I'll continue listening to your many voicemails and reading all of our messages. I love you Big Head see you later, until we meet again! Your Girl!

“ Although you’re no longer with us, I take comfort and great pleasure in the relationship We formed over the years, no matter the occasion your Support never seemed to fade for me and Steven and your impact on us will continue to live on until we meet again. I’m confident in scripture where it says absent from the body is present with the Lord because I know your walk with him with something that you always put on display for others to follow and you always let your light shine. I’m also blessed to know that your mom was waiting for you on the other side, smiling knowing that her son had done all he could do to see her again. I am not ordained to say well done but what I can say is that you have done well!! I myself, Jessica and Lolan. Love you very much. See you in the morning.!!!

“ You were always a huge supporter of my brother and I and never let us forget you loved us and we’re proud of us. While it’s still a shock that you’re no longer with us, I’m comforted in knowing your mother stood with God to welcome you with open arms! We love you and pray that you will rest in peace! Love, Steven, Fatima, & Kayomi Staten
