

Mr. Joseph Ronnie Lee Woods

January 15, 1954 - March 6, 2020

On a cool winter day, January 15, 1954 a baby boy was born to the union of Caffery and Gustavia Woods. They named him Joseph Ronnie Lee Woods. He was taught the “Golden Rules” at a young age. He was introduced to Christ, therefore being baptized at his family’s church Mount Zion Baptist Church in Texas City.

“Ronnie” as he was called by family and friends; was educated in the public schools of Texas City. He attended Booker T. Washington and graduated from Texas City High School with the class of 1970.

He equipped himself with the necessary tools to enter the work arena. He worked various jobs before finding the perfect career for him. For seventeen years Ronnie was a valuable employee at Brand Fabrication Inc.

Ronnie, our beloved brother, grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend loved spending quality time with his family and friends. His kind persona endeared him to many people. He enjoyed watching sports on the television especially the Dallas Cowboys and the Texans. Although he will no longer dwell with us in body, his memories shall abide with us forever.

He departed this earthly life on March 6, 2020, to receive his eternal life’s reward. He is preceded in death by his parents, Caffery and Gustavia Woods and his brother, Tony Woods.

His memory will always live in the hearts of his family; his siblings, Joseph “Boogie” Woods and Donna Woods; his grandchildren, Michael Walker, Maurice Walker and Roderick Merchant, Jr.; his nephews and nieces, Shay Woods (Chari), Melford Woods, Brandi Willis, Dacia Bellow, Jamari Woods, Jamai Woods, JoJo Woods, Darris Woods and Jaden Willis; his special friends, Brenda “Darling” Briers, Melvin “Tootsie Roll” Forman, Charlie and Lena Bledsoe, Donald Westbrook, Brand Fabrication Inc., Pastor L. D. Johnson and the Woodkins Family.
