

Mrs. Katie Mae Woodfox Stokes

September 8, 1922 - October 9, 2018

Katie Mae Woodfox Stokes, affectionately known as "Katie" was born to the union of Milton and Alice Morgan Woodfox on September 8, 1922 in New Iberia, Louisiana. She was the oldest of thirteen children. On Tuesday, October 9, 2018 at 1:46 p.m. she entered her eternal rest at Clear Lake Regional Hospital.

Katie grew up and attended school in New Iberia. She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Star Pilgrim Baptist Church. She later married George Stokes and moved to LaMarque, Texas where they raised seven children. She subsequently united with Greater Bell Zion Baptist Church for over a period of 60 years. After which, she joined Greater Barbour's Chapel Baptist Church in 2012 under the leadership of Pastor Andrew W. Berry II. Katie was a faithful and dedicated member who truly loved and enjoyed her church, pastor, and first lady. Katie was thrilled to be recognized as the eldest member of GBCBC during her membership. Sis. Stokes will be long remembered by the many lives she touched throughout her lifetime. She will be especially remembered for her wonderful cooking, warm hospitality, cleanliness, impeccable and stylish dress, fabulous hats, quick wit, and feistiness. Very few 96 year-old seniors could compare.

Katie was preceded in death by her husband, parents, brothers: Wilfred, Kenward, and Earl Woodfox; two sisters: Norma Woodfox and Anna Ervin; and one grandson: Byron Sherman.

Mourning her departure, yet cherishing her memory are her loving and devoted children. She is survived by three sons: George E. Stokes (Rosalita) of Missouri City, Anthony Stokes (Jocelyn) of League City, and Zendre Hicks Stokes of Texas City; four daughters: Marilyn Thompson (Vernon) of Texas City, Evelyn Stokes Bonner of Missouri City, Deanna Eaton of Webster, and Yvette Hicks of Texas City; sisters: Juanita Spencer and Verlie Mae Webster of Dallas, Texas and Lucille Morrison of Grand Prairie; brothers: Nathaniel Woodfox, Sr. of Texas City and Mack Miller Woodfox of Oakland, California. She also leaves this legacy of love to her loving grandchildren: Shannon T. Bonner of Missouri City, Vernon Thompson, Jr., Zuri Stokes (Shalanda) of Huntington, Virginia, LaTasha Stokes of Webster, Robert Jason Bonner (Deatra) of Rosharon, Britni Bonner Wilson (Gregory) of Fresno, Joseph Eaton of Clear Lake, DeAna Eaton of Webster and Taugh Carter of Texas City.

She is also survived by her great grandchildren: Jason Mathew Bonner, Jaden Micah Bonner, Braxton Stokes, Joshua Stokes, Madison Stokes, Tykoris Sherman, Reise Sherman, B.J. Sherman, Jazmine Eaton, Katherine Eaton, Rhenya, Chase, Lawson, and Logan Stokes, Greyson Wilson, Braylon Wilson, and three great great granddaughters. She will also be sincerely missed by her sisters-in-law, Lena Woodfox and LaVerne Woodfox, loving and faithful neighbors Doris Eirven and Mary Mozie, and a host of other relatives, friends, and church family.

Pastor Andrew W. Berry II will officiate the funeral service.
