To my brother from another Mother. You were the life of any party. I remember when we would go out to the club and I always had to carry a big stick because before the night was over you was trouble. You love me unconditional and always had my back and your kids was like minds when they came to visit you. I will miss you walking to the corner store and me blowing my horn and you running. Another angel gone to soon. Love and miss you my baby brother.💔
