“ To my childhood friend and classmate Gail, continued prayers 🙏 for you and your entire family. We all grew up together and attended school together and just know that your father will be truly missed by our entire neighborhood across the tracks by Rising Star Church as they would fondly refer to all of us growing up back in the day.

“ I know his wife, Bessie. Also, I know most of Bessie family. I was married to Bessie cousin, Charles Greer. Bessie and family are loving and kind people. I never will forget David and Bessie mother, Aunt Rose. She was one of the sweetest, you would had ever to meet. My condolences goes out to family. Love you all.

ST

To the family of Mr L.C Winston,I send you my deepest condolences. I remember the first time I sit down and had a conversation with Mr Winston. It was a Godly conversation. I guess he was trying to see what kind of man was dating his daughter. The time I spent with him it was historical. Every time he's seen me he always say "hey young man". I can surely say you will be missed but never forgotten. May God bless your soul. Mrs. Bessie Winston Love u so much. Remember we serve a God who never make mistakes.He want put too much on your heart that you can't handle. Steven W. TEMPLETON. HOUSTON TEXAS.
