

Mrs. Lorraine "Tit Tat" McGolthorn

November 11, 1929 - June 19, 2016

Mrs. Lorraine McGolthorn passed away on Sunday, June 19, 2016 at the age of 87. Tit Tat was a strong woman and had bones of a dinosaur. We all thought she would out live us all. Funny how things work out.

Tit Tat was born on November 11, 1929 to Mr. Frederick Howe and Louise Tix Howe. She was a long time resident of Galveston, TX before moving to Texas City, TX where she lived out her remaining time with us to the fullest. Tit Tat was a loving mother, daughter, grandmother and friend. She enjoyed playing slot machines, bingo, and spending time with all her grand kids and great grand kids, and trying to provide for her family while making the most out of every situation. She could tell you so many stories about growing up, and she never had a problem telling you like it was or what was on her mind. That woman could be your best friend or your worse enemy. Tit Tat was loved by all that knew her and had the biggest heart for a mean old lady!

Lorraine was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 60+ years, Lincoln "Cornbread" McGolthorn, two daughters: Ann McGolthorn and Nellie O'Connor; son-in-law, Louis W. O'Connor; three sisters: Kathryn Cleveland, Helen Stallone, and Ann Runyon; brother, James Howe; and let's not forget her beloved dog Bubba O'Connor.

Survivors include her brother, Robert Howe; son-in-laws William (Bill) Turnbull,

Gilberto Herrero and Danny Rouse, Jr.; and grand kids: Anthony "Baby Louis" O'Connor, Shannon Carman, Joseph O'Connor and Debra Turnbull. She also leaves behind 11 great grand kids and 1 great great grand kid.
