

Mrs. Lucky O'Connor Miller

August 14, 1972 - November 29, 2025

Lucky Lynn O'Connor Miller, 53, passed from this life Saturday, November 29, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family. Lucky was born August 14, 1972, in Galveston, Texas. Lucky grew up on the West End of Galveston, where life was always a little sandy, a little loud, and never boring. Whether she was riding horseback on the beach, or stirring up trouble at the poker table at her mom's poker games, she knew how to have a good time.

Lucky never met a stranger. She was loudly outspoken, loyal, blunt, and had absolutely no filter and that's what made her so unforgettable. She loved the Houston Texans and crawfish was her "Thang!" She could peel, eat, and talk smack all at once like a seasoned pro. She also had a deep love for fishing, especially at her favorite fishing spot with her devoted husband, where she could spend hours relaxing, reeling in memories, and enjoying the peace of the water. But above all, Lucky loved her kids and grandkids. They were the very center of her world, the joy of her days, and the pride of her heart. Her bold spirit, her laughter, and her one of a kind presence will live on in the memories she leaves behind.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Carl (Big Boy) and Wilma Joyce O'Connor; brothers: Carl O'Connor, Jr. and Louis O'Connor; and sister-in-law, Debbie O'Connor.

She is survived by her loving husband, Richard L Miller; her four loving children: Ashley Kovacevich, Amber Kovacevich, Alicia (Keaton) Bowlin, and Carl (Jessica) Hendrix. She is also survived by her 11 grandchildren: Tito, Natalie, MaKenzie, MaKenna, Kashton, Everleigh, Ensleigh, Lula, Maddi, Jordan and Raychel; siblings: Edward O'Connor, Robert (Debrah) O'Connor, Henry O'Connor and Evelyn (Eddie) DelaGarza; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Services are pending.

“ To Richard, although Big C and myself did not get to know you the important think is that you and Lucky Lou found and loved one another. To the girls and CJ it breaks our hearts that you and all your children cannot make new memories but can always hold on to the past memories you have shared.

To Lucky's siblings that are still here with us Henry, Robert, Edward and Evelyn we feel the loss deeply with and for you.

May you rest peacefully with your Mom, Dad, Louis and our beloved Carl (big hoss).

Just a couple of my Lucky memories. Riding down Avenue T , radio blaring singing Jo Dee Messina, heads carolina tails california.

Partying at mama Joyce's, hanging out in hitchcock.

Lucky could belch with the best of them!!

All our Love
