

Mr. Luis Lopez, III

July 3, 1995 - October 24, 2023

On July 3, 1995, in Texas City, Texas, God blessed Victoria Villarreal and Luis Lopez, Jr. with a handsome baby boy, whom they named Luis Lopez, III.

He was raised in a loving home in Galveston, Texas. Growing up, the importance of family was instilled in him. As a child, Luis was very adventurous and spontaneous. He enjoyed playing football and being surrounded by friends. He loved being a brother to his four siblings.

Luis spent his whole life residing in Galveston, Texas. He enjoyed life being surrounded by those he loved over cold beers, barbecues, and family gatherings. Most of his free time was dedicated to his wife and family. He had a passion for music and hard labor work that involved his skills as a boiler maker and concrete finisher. No job was ever too big or too small as he was confident that it could be completed. Luis also loved to travel, especially while working in different states. He loved to learn and discover new places while new adventures approached. Those adventures included learning a new state's culture, lifestyles, and we cannot forget the music. His love language was through music and cooking.

Luis better known by family and friends as BigLou, was a very outspoken and a people person. The word "stranger" did not exist in his vocabulary because everyone instantly became family. He was a gentle giant, a heart filled with so much love yet assertive with certain situations. If you were blessed to meet him you knew he had a loud contagious laugh and a smile that lit a room. He spoke life into anyone with his favorite quote, "God got us". He loved to fish and spend as much time as possible near the water. He always said it was the place that gave him the most comfort and peace of mind.

Luis Lopez, III gained his wings to become our guardian angel on Tuesday, October 24th, 2023 in Galveston, Texas at the age of 28. He is now beginning a new life with our Lord and the following angels: grandfather, Victor P. Villarreal; great grandmother, Guadalupe Villarreal; great grandpa, Chon Villarreal; grandpa, Alfonso Lopez; uncle, Vicente Villarreal; and uncles Alfonso Lopez and Librado Lopez.

Luis's memory will always live in the hearts of his family and friends.

Luis's memory is survived by his beloved parents, Victoria Villarreal and Luis Lopez Jr.; grandmother, Antonia Villarreal; his devoted wife and companion, Gisela Chevez; one daughter, Dezirae Lopez; twin sons: Dominic and Daniel Lopez; two brothers: Victor Villarreal and Xavier Lopez; two younger sisters, Viviana Lopez and Yanet Rodriguez; two nephews: Isaiah Lopez and Larry Jackson III; a niece, Mariana Lopez; aunts and uncles: Dorothy White, Cruz Belmarez and Jay Belmarez; and lastly by the numerous extended family members and friends.
