

Mrs. Lula Mae Wilson

April 28, 1936 - July 17, 2020

Mrs. Lula Mae Wilson, fondly called Lula Mae, was born April 28, 1936, to the late John and Roberta Jackson in Delhi, Louisiana.

Lula was educated in Louisiana until she moved to Texas. Lula did mostly domestic work, department store work, and had many hats in the church's kitchen.

She is preceded in death by her husband, George; children: Anthony Ray Spencer and Jeffrey (Red) Spencer; parents: John and Roberta; siblings: Roberta Marshall, General Lee Jackson, Willie Henry Jackson, Nehemiah Jackson, and Ethel Hudson; and a son-in-law, Casey Hampton.

Left to cherish her memories are daughters: Beverly Semien Hampton and Brenda Cooper; son: Kenneth (Vera) Spencer; granddaughters: LaChat Bluit and Tiffany (Calvin) Cooper Williams; great grandchildren: Kameran Jackson and Kendall Rodriguez; sisters: Elizabeth Moultry, Deloris Johnson, Essie Jackson and Gloria; and brother, Dr. Jesse Jackson; as well as many devoted nieces, nephews and friends.

Brother Jesse Jackson will officiate the funeral services.

Special thanks go to The Resort Nursing Home and staff for her care, along with UTMB Geriatrics. Special thanks also goes to her church family at Westward Street Church of Christ who always asked about her and prayed for her.

At McBride Funeral Home, the wearing of face masks and adhering to social distancing are REQUIRED given the safety guidelines issued by local and state officials due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.
