

Mrs. Mary Lombardo

January 4, 1948 - December 14, 2023

Mary Helen Lombardo was born on January 4, 1948, to John and Rose Riedmueller. She was born and raised in Orange, Texas. Mary gracefully passed in death on Thursday, December 14, 2023, at 10:15pm at Harbour Hospice House in Beaumont, Texas.

Mary was a baptized and confirmed Catholic at St. Mary's in Orange, Texas where she received her primary through high school education. She was graduate of Lamar University as an X-Ray technician but spent the majority of her adult life in her chosen profession as a Beautician in Beaumont, Texas. Mary was beloved by almost all that met her and had one of the kindest Christian hearts of anyone you would ever meet. She would feed, cloth, and open her home to any friend in need.

She was survived by her two sons: Clint and Greg Linscomb; daughter-in-law, Sarina Linscomb; and three grandchildren: Caileb, Mackenzie, and Saige Linscomb. She was preceded in death by her son, Eric Linscomb and daughter, Lauren Linscomb.

Mary will be dearly missed by all that loved her. Mary's remains have been cremated upon her wishes.

“ The St.Mary's Class of 1966. Send our condolences to Mary Helen's family. We have fond memories of our years at St.Mary's from 1st grade -12 grade. Always a joy to be around her and with her! During Our high school years, Mary did most of her female classmates hair and makeup for proms, homecomings and even graduation pictures. She was very talented. How she was able to get herself ready with not turning any of us down, I'll never know. We loved her and will missed her and her delightful stories! May God bless you in this your time of loss of a beautiful soul!!
Love,
Jeanette Cormier Hubert and the class of 1966, St.Mary's High School
