“ Most people have a "cool aunt". Mine was Auntie Nan. I loved going to her house because she always made sure everyone was fed and happy. She was a good cook, so that made it easy. After her first marriage, she let me play in her wedding gown and gave me her bouquet. (!!!) To a five year old, 'girly girl", I was thrilled! Just one of hundreds of memories about my Auntie Nan.

Nan and I have been friends since Edison Jr High School in Los Angeles...along with Ann and Fanita! We eventually went on to record records under the name of "The Dreamers/Blossoms/Girlfriends"... etc...we became the "matriarchs of black background singers in Hollywood!" We recorded behind most of the major singers of the 50's and 60's.....to name a few....Elvis Presly, Tom Jones, Sam Cooke, Johnny Rivers, Jan & dean, Herb Alpert, Sonny & Cher, The Beach Boys, Etta James, and many more ! We absolutely loved singing ❤️ our harmony was beautiful....Nan was the sweetest 1st soprano in the business.....,now all my sisters have left me behind with some "beautiful memories!"

Hi Gloria, what wonderful memories of you beautiful singing divas. 👑
She loved your sense of humor and always told us great stories. She was crazy about your mom & dad too!! 😊

“ Growing up as a kid all the way till my late teenage years, it was SO exciting going over to spend the night at Nana's house. Nana was an outstanding top tier grandma who we use to always watch murder mysteries and eat snacks together and run errands together-which was a laugh fest for me with Nana being a natural comedian. Having to go back home after staying at Nana's house was miserable because Nana was so loving and cool without even trying to be and made everyone's day. Super influential growing up. Love you Nana, we all will miss you 🌸🕊️👉

My dear Nunya!! 🕊️ (I laughed so hard at that name)

Oh man, Nana loved you to the moon & back nephew!! ❤️

“ Aaahhh! When I was first married to Hayden, the Warrz riot just broke out. We lived on opposite streets. Nan put this white girl in big sun glasses, long sleeve blouse and scarf on my blond hair with her son Rickie on my lap in back seat to get me out of Watts. She was a great sister-in-law. Loved her. Love you all..Aunt Nyla

I love this!! 🥰 That sounds like my mom!!

Auntie Nyla you were absolutely our "cool" aunt. 😊 We loved spending weekends with you. Man, I miss those days ❤️

“ Aunt Nan, even though I haven't seen you in years, every memory of you is precious to me. We always laughed when we were together. You were definitely one of my faves!

Your niece,

“ Aunt Nan,
I don't even know where to begin to tell you how much "LiL Deekus" loved you.....to begin with, I used to wish you were my mom, even though my mom was your twin sister. I loved the little nick name, "LiL Deekus", that you gave me as a little boy...
I will never forget the little pet turtle you bought me when my mom wouldn't buy it for me.....You fried the best fried chicken that we ever had tasted as kids.....the best peach cobbler that we begged for as kids...
I will always miss you and my mom, the original twins of "The Blossoms ".....
