“ To my oldest sister I pray you are at peace now your 69 & 1/2 years on this earth has come to an end, we can only hope and pray that you will continue to watch over us until we meet again, our hearts are heavy because you left us so soon, time heals all heart aches we will miss and you'll forever be in our hearts, weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning loving you always your sis Yvonne

I'm saddened for the lost of my sister Pam, even though in my heart I know you're not suffering anymore it's still unbelievable that you're not here amongst us... praying that your soul is at ease and asking you be the best guardian angel for our mother, your boys and your grandchildren and Henry too because he was there for you, and of course us your siblings... Take your rest sister love you always Sharion aka bird as you called me...
