“ Pat was a great Mom. Patty and Steve were her whole world. She was always so kind and generous to me. I remember one holiday season she was visiting and she and Patty and I went shopping She insisted on buying me this purple suit I had tried on. I kept that suit for years after it no longer fit. She also opened her home to my husband and I on our way from the Valley heading back to VA. She gave us a whole pot roast she had cooked overnight to take with us. The woman literally clothed, sheltered and fed me. She will be missed.

“ I remember when Steve and I were going to the police academy in Houston. One morning she made eggs for us, I put salsa on the eggs and used a torilla to scoop up the egg and salsa to eat eat. She said, see Steve he isn't such a Gringo. 😊
I also remember how she would put cinnamon in the coffe pot while making coffee, it gave the coffee a slight cinnamon taste. It must have been magic because I have never been able to get it right since.
