

Mr. Paul Brown

May 2, 1962 - December 24, 2019

Paul Andre Brown, known everywhere as Dre, was born in Chicago, Illinois on May 2, 1962. He moved to Pontiac, Michigan around the age of 8 and made many friends and memories there, until he decided to make his home in Texas nearly 27 years ago. Sadly, it was in Galveston, Texas that Dre departed this world on December 24, 2019. He is preceded in death by his father, Paul Brown Sr. (d. 2004) and his mother, Maude Marie Brown (d. 1999).

In addition to his daughter, Natalia Cuellar, Dre is also survived by his sisters: Sonya Brown and Denise Brown (Cook); and brothers: Michael Brown, Steven Gray and Jamal Vereen. He also leaves to mourn a host of nieces and nephews: Gerard Walker, Chris McClendon, Ebony McClendon, Jasmine Brown, Nathaniel Cook III, Brittany Cook, Joseph Cook, LaSheron Gray and Apollo Vereen).

Dre is dearly missed by his loving companion, Ollie Edison-Little, and the family they shared, including children: Danetra Edison, Elesha Little, Kimberly Triplett and Dennis Triplett; and grandchildren: Aamyah Joseph, Tieraney Cohen, Sereniti Cohen, Khloe Petteway, Dominique Petteway, Evin Gould, Aubrey Kenny, Jaiden Burrows, Damon Porter Jr., Raymond Porter, Paris Turner, Dasia Triplett, Dennis Triplett Jr., Daylon Triplett, Jamaica Houston, and Kiko Houston. Dre is also lovingly remembered by his dearest friends, Chris Lunsford and Sandy Garrett.

A repast will be held Saturday, January 11, 2020 after the memorial service at 3505 Orange Ave., Texas City, TX 77590

“ I'm going to miss him so much. No matter what type of mood he was in he would always light up when I came over with the kids. Always cheerful and hype lol and didn't play about his family! We had good times and hard times but it was all well worth it. 💔

“ Still can't believe he's gone & I truly will miss my brother. He was a truck driver by trade but an entrepreneur & music producer was what he was passionate about. My memories will always be good ones with melodic beats!

“ Dre, I missed your phone call this year on New Year's Eve, for the first time in years. Everyone else sends Happy New Year texts but you always called and yelled in the phone, "HAPPY NEW YEAR, DEN-DEN!" That's when it really hit me. Sonya and I texted each other how we both missed your phone calls and it was probably the saddest I've been since you left. All of these years, you were just on the other end of a text or call, and I got used to that. You were an M80 in a world full of firecrackers so I know you're okay now, up there in the stars. Love you forever, Black Jesus. "Den-Den"

“ Dre was a very close friend and family member to me and my family. I met Dre 30 years ago in a point in my life i was at my lowest. He never cared about where you cam from .. But he did care about where i was going. He has brought me up at my lowest and pushed me harder at my highest. Loved fishing as much as i did and loved my family too. He was uncle Dre to my son Chris and daughter Whitney., and as time went by even my granddaughters loved him. He was family. You will be truly missed bro... Find rest and be with your loved ones in heaven...
