“ Other members of the Borger High class of 1958 who knew Richard better than I will have more to say about him, and it will be better than what I have to say, as I probably had no more than one hour of conversation with him, and most of that came from the times when he some of us met at Possum Kingdom. His even-tempered personality and disposition will make the list, as others in our class have confirmed. And most of us were aware, either from personal contact or second-hand, what he went through in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey. I do not know what church he belonged to or what his political beliefs were. I do know that I cannot imagine talking about the Class of '58 without including him, as someone who knew where he belonged and never had to ask why. In an era when everyone seems to be angry about someone or something, I never heard him utter a discouraging word. I believe that I'll hang on to the one hour of conversation I had with him. Maybe the world will look better. Lester Dan Langlely, BHS Class of '58
