

Mr. Ruel James Rankine

January 7, 1950 - September 23, 2022

Mr. Ruel James Rankin, (Randy) age 72 of Pearland, Texas was called home to be with his eternal father September 23, 2022. He was born in Westmoreland, Jamaica to proud parents Stanford A. and Hortense M. Rankine, on January 7, 1950. Ruel was known by his friends and family alike to be humble, loving and helpful.

He has many accomplishments in life, one was graduating college with a degree in accounting which he used to make many great financial investments. In addition to his academic achievement, he embodied an entrepreneurial spirit and mindset throughout his life; always looking for investment opportunities. He listened to music, with Peter Tosh being one of his favorites and he had a love for dogs. In his younger days, Ruel was known as a skilled fisherman and excelled at spear fishing.

Randy is preceded in death by his parents: Stanford A. and Hortense M. Rankine, oldest sister Beryl Elaine in England, brothers Joseph and Winston in Jamaica.

Mr. Ruel James Rankine is survived by many loved ones that cherished him deeply including his sisters Marion and Patricia in Texas as well as Vie and Angeline in Florida. Randy is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends around the globe.

“ For Uncle Ruel,

Even though I didn't get a chance to meet you in person, my dad Winston Rankine used to talk about you a lot. He would share great memories about you when you all were kids and how much he missed you. He would read your letters to us. Aunty Carmen always talk about you too and along with her brother Ansurd. hope you Rest In Peace.

“ for my Friend
A truly beautiful soul,
So loyal and so kind,
You will live on forever, my special friend,
In my heart and in my mind.
Our friendship was truly priceless,
I will cherish it forevermore.
Until the day that we meet again,
When I knock on heaven's door.
I wish I had just one more chance,
To see that tender smile.
To laugh with you again my friend,
Just for a little while.
Rest softly now, my special friend,
Safe in the knowledge that I,
Will never let your memory fade,
And so, you'll never truly die.
