“ Chip I remember how you Zoe the kitten and how he grew up to be the most beautiful Siamese. Your also Fed our own rescue with the freeze dried chicken. I saw you for many years put your heart and soul in Passion. You're Dream came true when the big crane lifted passion and put her on the biggest trailer I've ever seen. Rest In Peace Chip. You are truly missed

“ My Dearest Chip,

Words cannot express what my heart feels. When we first met, you sent me several texts that said “you give me a nice warmth inside. Feels incredible! What an improbable set of happenings and circumstances has brought us together. There is a reason for sure. Can’t wait to see you again.” “ I feel so lucky you have entered my life.”

I loved how you always ended the evening texts with “Sleep well Ma Lady”...I so miss receiving those...

I knew from the moment we met and talked for hours that our lives were meant to be together, unfortunately the universe had another plan. To say that I miss you would be an understatement. There is so much we were going to do including sailing with “Passion” together...

However; I am smiling today because you came into my life if only briefly and my heart is full of the time we spent together. I will always cherish and honor that time and the memories we created; what fun to dream of sailing “Passion” back to Florida and then the Bahamas. Buying a larger boat so I could continue my Bed and Breakfast with you teaching diving lessons...becoming a “sailing angel” so our hearts could touch other’s lives...it was just not meant to be. So....be well my Sailor and know....I miss you so very much..

I know you are smiling and sailing “Passion” in your own way in heaven. Save a place on board for me : )

*Much Love,
Caprice*
