

Mrs. Sharon Ann Boyt

May 4, 1943 - October 7, 2020

My mother is always with me. She is the whisper of the leaves as I walk down the street. She's the smell of certain foods I remember, flowers I pick, the fragrance of life itself. She's the cool hand on my brow when I'm not feeling well, she's my breath in the air on a cold winter's day. She is the sound of rain that lulls me to sleep, the colors of a rainbow; she is Christmas morning. My mother lives in my laughter. She's the place I come from, my first home, and she's the map I follow with every step I take. She is my first love, my first friend, even my first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate me, not time, not space, not even death.
