“ *I will greatly miss my great-aunt Sheila. I am thankful that over the past few years we were able to share laughs, encourage each other, and most importantly we took advantage of opportunities to say "I love you". I love you Aunt Sheila. I love you Jill, Jarvis, and Boo. I pray that God give you strength and comfort during this time of bereavement.

“ We the Northern CA family members of our beloved, affable, jovial and generous: sister, aunt and cousin Mrs. Shelia Sowery-Owens, regret the untimely demise of our member. Shelia was the youngest of nine siblings, in her family of origin. She left us with memories of her warmth and very serendipitous personality. We realize and accept the Creator's will that she return to her eternal home. Shelia is now at rest in the loving arms of the Creator and at peace from her labors on this plane. She is gone, but never will she be forgotten. We support her immediate family, in mourning our collective losses of Shelia, who lived life on "her terms," but never intentionally impacting anyone. Though we mourn, we rejoice in the fact, she's at rest; and, we realize Shelia is now in the hands of our Creator. We solicit the prayers of her community and send our warmest regards to her young adults, grandchildren, friends and associates. Shelia is gone from this earthly plane, but she will never be forgotten, as we entrust her to the Creator's care, who will love and nurture her sweet spirit throughout eternity.

Respectfully submitted,

“ I am saddened by the Home-going of my sweet-spirited aunt. She was a friendly, outgoing and upbeat person who loved her family and friends. Although she will no longer be with us, the family has many fond memories of her to lighten our hearts somewhat. Personally, I find comfort in knowing that my dear aunt knew Jesus as her Savior and had grown in her relationship with the Lord. She departed this Earth peacefully with knowledge of God’s forgiveness and His love.

With Much Love and Heart-felt Sympathy, Elaine
