

Mrs. Sylvia Lavern Williams

February 24, 1949 - March 29, 2023

On February 24, 1949 in Galveston, Texas a beautiful baby girl was born to the parentage of Aquillia Lewis, Sr. and Dora Mae Wardell Lewis. They named her Sylvia Lavern Lewis.

Sylvia grew up in Dickinson, Texas and received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

graduating in 1967. While there, she excelled in academics, was a Panther Cheerleader and a member of the Girl's Basketball Team. Sylvia's class was the last graduating class of the school before integration. Sylvia furthered her education at Prairie View A & M University earning a Bachelor's degree in Education.

Sylvia married her high school sweetheart on August 23, 1968 and to this union 3 children were born. She completed 25 years of service in space and aeronautics exploration working with companies such as United Space Alliance, Rockwell and the University of Houston. She retired from United Space Alliance as a Configuration Analyst where she worked with special teams tracking the flight patterns of the space shuttles.

Sylvia was a firm believer in Christ and her civic responsibility. She served at the voting polls in Galveston County during each election whenever she could.

Sylvia, also known as “Baby Sister” was an awesome cook, and a super sports enthusiast. There was no sport that she didn’t enjoy and keep up with, including zealously cheering on her beloved Dickinson Gators. Sylvia showered her family with love and delicious treats like her chocolate chip cookies and traditional potato salad.

Sylvia was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Aquillia (JuneBug) Lewis, Jr. and Gregory (Knight) Lewis; and one sister, Brenda (Bean) J. Hagler.

Sylvia leaves precious memories with her husband of 54 years, Mr. Kenneth O. Williams of League City, Texas; Three Children: Kenette T. Williams, Houston, Texas; Keylan Williams and Kennec Williams, League City, Texas; Granddaughters (Her Girls): Kyra J. Husemann and Keylie N. Williams; Special to Her Heart: Doris Blackmon, Gloria Talbert, Denise Mckenzie, Marcia Ellison, Vivian Martin and Godson, Kevin Benard; brother-in-law, Melvin Hagler and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

We loved you your whole life! We will miss you for the rest of ours.

Love,

Kenneth, Kenette, Keylan, and Kennec
