“ Mrs. Waurine Robinson Strother and I grew up together at Sunlight Missionary Baptist church, although she was several years younger; our parents sang in the choir where her Dad was lead singer, her Mom led occasionally as well. Waurine inherited the special gift of a lead singer and led many choirs including, children, youth, young adults, and adults. She may have even become a recording artist in her adult years with a few church and community choirs in her adult years; however, I can't confirm and/or deny the latter due to moving to a different state. One thing for sure, she led our church in a most holy spiritual worship song service on Sunday mornings with one of my favorite songs, "Trouble in My Way, I Have to Cry Sometimes"....Jesus, He will Fix It". Her melodious voice will always be missed but forever remembered. Love, prayers, comfort and strength to the family.
