“ Pat loved me as a sister and I loved her in the same way from the first time we met at a nursing conference. We were both lifetime members of the National Black Nurses Association and we were both wives of successful pastors who presided over their own churches. Pat helped me in so many ways to understand my professional responsibilities as the spouse of a minister. She was very proud of her calling as a clergy spouse and wore it as a badge of honor. Pat will always hold a special place in my heart. Paulette Walton Mebane, MSN, RN..... Falmouth, Massachusetts

“ Memories from New York:

Joyce and Pat met in Jr high school (7th grade) and became sisters for a lifetime. I being an orphan and she being an only child, we bonded. I became part of the Correia. Family, affectionately called "the other daughter". We shared high school, senior prom, nursing school, a family, children and our spouses became very close.

I was with Mr. Correia in hospice and Mrs. Correia when she complete radiation. I never had a chance to say goodbye to Pat.

May you all find the peace in knowing God loved her more. No more pain, sorrow, or tears. She is with God.

Love you all. To DeLLoyd, Neal, Paul, Amy, Martin, David and Davetta; to all the family and friends.
